Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit." ~ Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Interested In Becoming Catholic? 8/13

You may have been coming to the Catholic Church for a long time with a family member or with a friend, but you had not thought about the possibility of becoming Catholic. Maybe now is the time to consider that possibility. Would you like to learn more about the Catholic Church to help with your decision? If so, please consider attending an Inquiry meeting. The meetings will be available the second Sundays during the summer months at 9:30 – August 13th. They will be held in the modular building behind the administrative offices. These sessions will help those interested to prepare for the upcoming RCIA Process which begins the week of Sept. 10, 2023. For more information, please call Fr. Jantz or Jackie Lampton at 663-3936.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

What a wonderful summer it's been at St. Thomas! We've had so many great times together over the past couple months, especially VBS and the Feast of St. Thomas, and I look forward to seeing the great things God has planned for us over the next year.

During the summer, many families have the habit of taking a bit of vacation time. This is a great thing to do—and not just because it's fun to relax. In the Old Testament, God commanded his people to take a day of rest each week, to spend with Him and with their families. He also commanded special times throughout the year when work should take a back seat to celebration and refreshment. In other words, God made it very clear that life is ultimately about relationships, not our bank accounts or job fulfillment.

Even though the details of the old Law don't apply to Christians, the principle of rest is important for us, too—Christ set us free, so that we could enjoy the things that truly matter. For those who are able to take some vacation this summer, I encourage you to enjoy some intentional time with God and your family. It's especially important not to forget about the family prayers, even if we're away from our usual routine! And for all of us, even those who can't take a summer vacation, we should all at a point of keeping our eyes on the things that truly matter in life: God, our families, and our community.

Through the intercession of Blessed Mary, Ever-Virgin, and our patron St. Thomas, let's dedicate both our work and our leisure to God, our Father in heaven.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

¡Qué gran verano hemos tenido en nuestra parroquia! Entre la fiesta de Santo Tomás y la Escuela Bíblica y las muchas actividades, hemos recibido muchas bendiciones de Dios. Espero ver las grandes cosas que Dios tiene para nosotros durante el próximo año.

Durante el verano, muchas familias tienen la costumbre de tomarse vacaciones. Esto es una cosa muy buena, y no solo porque es divertido relajarse. En el Antiguo Testamento, Dios ordenó a su pueblo tomar un día de descanso cada semana, para pasarlo con Él y con sus familias. También estableció momentos especiales a lo largo del año específicamente para la celebración. En otras palabras, Dios dejó muy claro que las cosas más importantes en la vida son las relaciones, no nuestras cuentas bancarias o la realización personal en el trabajo.

Los detalles de la Ley antigua no se aplican a los cristianos, pero el principio del descanso es importante para nosotros también: Cristo nos liberó para que pudiéramos disfrutar de las cosas que realmente importan. Para aquellos que puedan tomarse unas vacaciones este verano, los animo a disfrutar de un tiempo intencional con Dios y su familia. ¡Es importante no olvidar las oraciones en familia cuando estamos en un tiempo de descanso! Y para todos nosotros, incluso aquellos que no pueden tomarse vacaciones este verano, deberíamos mantener nuestros ojos en las cosas que realmente importan en la vida: Dios, nuestras familias y nuestra comunidad.

Por la intercesión de María Santísima, Siempre Virgen, y de nuestro patrón Santo Tomás, dediquemos nuestro trabajo y nuestro tiempo libre a Dios, nuestro Padre del cielo.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
