Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

After our readings last week led us to reflect on the way God has brought all people together into his Kingdom, this week we hear the story of how Christ made sure those many peoples would be brought into the oneness of faith. When Peter recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, Jesus gives him the special ministry of leading the Church in unity.

This passage has resonated loudly over the centuries. We hear those words of Jesus, and we can't help but think of the many successors of St Peter who have had such an incredible impact on the history of our faith. As of 2023, there have been 265 of them, from St Linus through our own Pope Francis, and each of them has exercised this special ministry in ways that profoundly impact our faith. From speaking bold words of witness in times of controversy, to giving their life in witness to the Gospel in times of persecution, to exercising faithful stewardship of the Church in times of tranquility. The popes are a sign of hope and encouragement to us, as God's pilgrim people.

And yet we also know that being the Holy Father is an incredibly difficult job. There's a reason why Pope Francis is always asking for our prayers, and why Catholics customarily add a prayer for his intention to the Rosary. At 86 years old, Pope Francis still going strong, leading the Church through our challenging times with tremendous energy and creativity. So many people have been drawn closer to God through his inspiring example, and he needs our prayers. As we reflect on the promises of Christ to Peter, let's be sure to offer a special prayer for our good Pope this week.

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of Apostles, and our patron St. Thomas, may Pope Francis continue to be an inspiring voice of God's love and Christ's unity, for the worldwide Church and for our parish.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

La semana pasada, las lecturas de las Escrituras nos llevaron a reflexionar sobre la forma en que Dios ha reunido a todas las personas en su Reino. Esta semana escuchamos la historia de cómo Cristo se aseguró de que todos pueblos fueran llevados a la unidad de la fe. Cuando San Pedro reconoció a Jesús como el Mesías, Jesús le dio el ministerio especial de conducir la Iglesia en unidad.

Este pasaje ha resonado con fuerza a lo largo de los siglos. Escuchamos esas palabras de Jesús y no podemos evitar pensar en los muchos sucesos de San Pedro que han tenido un impacto tan increíble en la historia de nuestra fe. A partir de 2023, ha habido 265 de ellos, desde San Linus hasta nuestro Papa Francisco, y cada uno de ellos ha ejercido este ministerio especial en formas que impactan profundamente nuestra fe. Desde pronunciar palabras audaces de testimonio en tiempos de controversia, hasta dar su vida en testimonio del Evangelio en tiempos de persecución, hasta ejercer una mayordomía fiel de la Iglesia en tiempos de tranquilidad. Los Papas son un signo de esperanza y aliento para nosotros, como pueblo peregrino de Dios.

Y, sin embargo, también sabemos que ser el Santo Padre es un trabajo increíblemente difícil. Hay una razón por qué el Papa Francisco siempre pide nuestras oraciones, y por qué los católicos suelen agregar una oración por su intención al Rosario. A 86 años, el Papa Francisco sigue siendo fuerte, guiando a la Iglesia a través de nuestros tiempos difíciles con tremenda energía y creatividad. Mucha gente se ha acercado más a Dios a través de su ejemplo inspirador, y él necesita nuestras oraciones. Mientras reflexionamos sobre las promesas de Cristo a Pedro, asegurémonos de ofrecer una oración especial por nuestro buen Papa esta semana.

Por intercesión de María, la Madre de los Apóstoles, y de nuestro patrón Santo Tomás, que el Papa Francisco continúe siendo una voz inspiradora del amor de Dios y la unidad de Cristo, para la Iglesia mundial y para nuestra parroquia.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
