Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With Labor Day weekend, we're moving out of the summer season and into the swing of fall. Things are moving again, both in the world around us and at St. Thomas! Our campus ministry is back in session, Faith Formation will begin next week, and the special seasonal events are coming soon. I'd especially mention All Saints' Day (November the 1st, a holy day) and our Youth Fall Festival (on November the 5th).

Before we jump into the busy season, however, we have the gift of a day of rest. Our secular calendar gives us Labor Day weekend, customarily Monday off. In the Church's tradition, however, we see every Sunday as a time of rest. Or maybe to put it a bit more exactly, a time of freedom.

Here's the idea from Scripture. Our work on the other days of the week is when we share in God's own work of making and sustaining—but the rest we enjoy each Sunday is a sign that we're made for more than work. It's a time when we don't just use creation (through work) but instead enjoy creation, especially in our relationships. Part of why Sunday Mass is such an important hour of each week is precisely because it brings together our relationships with God and each other. And hopefully the holiday weekend will be a time to enjoy those relationships more fully, even for those who might have to work on Monday.

I wish everyone a restful Labor Day weekend with your family, friends, and neighbors. Let's rest from our labors, and look forward to the great work that God will do among us during the coming program year, under the powerful intercession of Blessed Mary, Ever-Virgin, and our patron St. Thomas.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Con el fin de semana del Labor Day (Día de los Trabajadores), estamos saliendo de la temporada de verano y entrando en el otoño. ¡Las cosas se están moviendo nuevamente, tanto en el mundo como en Santo Tomás! Nuestro ministerio universitario está en sesión, la Formación de Fe comenzará la próxima semana y muchos eventos especiales llegarán pronto. Menciona en particular la Fiesta de Todos Los Santos (1 de noviembre, un día de obligación) y el Festival de Otoño para nuestros jóvenes (5 de noviembre).

Sin embargo, antes de entrar en esta temporada, tenemos el don de un día de descanso. El calendario secular nos da Labor Day. En la tradición de la Iglesia, vemos cada domingo como un tiempo de descanso. O tal vez para decirlo un poco más exactamente, un tiempo de libertad.

Aquí está la idea de las Escrituras. Nuestro trabajo en los otros días de la semana es cuando compartimos la obra de Dios de hacer y sostener la creación, pero el descanso que disfrutamos cada domingo es una señal de que estamos hechos para más que solo trabajo. Es un momento cuando no usamos la creación (a través del trabajo), sino que disfrutamos de la creación, especialmente en nuestras relaciones. La Misa de domingo es una hora tan importante de cada semana precisamente porque une nuestras relaciones con Dios y entre nosotros. Espero que el fin de semana festivo será un momento para disfrutar más plenamente de esas relaciones, incluso para aquellos que tengan que trabajar el lunes.

Les deseo a todos un buen Labor Day con su familia, amigos y vecinos. Descansemos de nuestras labores y esperemos la gran obra que Dios hará entre nosotros durante el próximo año programático, bajo la poderosa intercesión de Santísima María, Siempre Virgen, y de nuestro patrón Santo Tomás.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
