Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit." ~ Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Interested In Becoming Catholic?

You may have been coming to the Catholic Church for a long time with a family member or with a friend, but you had not thought about the possibility of becoming Catholic. Maybe now is the time to consider that possibility. Would you like to learn more about the Catholic Church to help with your decision? The RCIA Process (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) at St. Thomas are on Tuesday @ 6:30. The classes will be in the St. Joseph's Classroom in the main office building. For more information, please call Fr. Jantz @ 205-663-3936 or Jackie Lampton @ 205-663-3936 or 205-249-1171(cell)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I'm always amazed at how Advent seems to sneak up on us every year. With the rush of activities throughout the fall, it seems like you blink once, and then it's Thanksgiving, and you blink again, and then Christmas is only four weeks away. This Sunday, Advent has gone and snuck up on us once again!

The sneakiness of the Advent season is something that can teach us a lot, I think. We often get lost amid the busy-ness of life, and we don't enjoy each moment the way we should. We don't linger, looking for the wonder of what God is doing. Sometimes it feels like we're sleep-walking through life. And then Advent comes, quietly and unexpectedly, with its familiar sights and sounds. It's a moment when we have a chance to wake up, like today's second reading suggests. But Advent isn't a difficult morning, like getting up early on a Monday. It's a time when we awaken to joy.

One of my favorite descriptions of Advent is that it is a time of "devout and expectant delight." Our devotion to God awakens our joy, and our joy increases our love for him. My prayer is that all the people of St. Thomas—along with our families and community—will feel that sense of delight this Advent.

As we enter this season of devout delight as a parish family, we'll be overjoyed by the special traditions of the season: the candles, the special music, the Montevallo Christmas Parade, and especially the Feasts of the Immaculate Conception and Our Lady of Guadalupe. Through our Lady's intercession, and the prayers of our patron St. Thomas, let's get ready to rejoice at coming celebration of our Savior's birth.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Adult Faith Formation

Adult Faith Formation continues Sunday mornings between the masses at 9:45am after the rosary. The schedule for November and December include: Senses used in reading the Bible December 3rd, The Gospel of Mark with Father Cook, December 10th, Defending the Faith, December 17th, Christmas break December 24th and 31st. All are welcomed to attend.

Ladies Wednesday Bible Study

The Ladies Morning Scripture Study are on Wednesday's in the St. Joseph's Room with The Eucharist in Scripture. This study will discover God's plan as it is expressed through the Bible and the Mass. This six-lesson study, presented by Dr. Scott Hahn, will unlock the meaning of covenant, sacrifice, and sacrament as understood in the Bible, from Genesis through Revelation. The Eucharist in Scripture examines the biblical foundations of the Eucharist and explores the Church's liturgy as the original context for the books of the Bible. All ladies are welcome to attend. Call Debbie at 205-616-0920 if you have any questions

Wednesday Night Scripture Study

We are in our second year of the National Eucharistic Revival. This second phase will foster Eucharistic devotion at the parish level, strengthening our liturgical life through faithful celebration of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, and movements of the Holy Spirit. With this in mind, the Wednesday Night Scripture Study Group will explore Eucharist: Discovering the Mass in the Bible. Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching. We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation. Our first session will be Wednesday, September 13 at 7:00 PM in the St. Joseph's room. All are invited to attend. Questions? Call Bill or Deb at 205-515-1927.

Greene County Food & Coat Collection Thank You

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

El Adviento nos sorprende cada año. Con las muchas actividades a lo largo del otoño, parpadeas solo una vez, y es Thanksgiving, y parpadeas una vez más, y faltan solo cuatro semanas para Navidad. ¡Este domingo, el Adviento ha llegado y nos ha sorprendido una vez más!

La sorpresa del Adviento es algo que nos puede enseñar mucho. A menudo nos perdemos en medio de las cosas de la vida y no disfrutamos cada momento como deberíamos. No nos detenemos, buscando la maravilla de lo que Dios está haciendo. A veces parece que vamos sonámbulos por la vida. Y luego llega el Adviento, en silencio y como una sorpresa, con sus imágenes y sonidos familiares. Es un momento cuando tenemos la oportunidad de despertar, como sugiere la segunda lectura de hoy. Pero el Adviento no es una mañana difícil, como madrugar un lunes. Es un momento cuando despertamos a la alegría.

Una de mis descripciones favoritas del Adviento es que es un tiempo de "deleite devoto y expectante." Nuestra devoción a Dios despierta nuestro gozo, y nuestro gozo aumenta nuestro amor por él. Mi oración es que toda la gente de Santo Tomás, junto con nuestras familias y la comunidad, sientan ese deleite en este Adviento.

Al entrar en esta temporada de devoto deleite como familia parroquial, estaremos encantados con las tradiciones especiales de la temporada: las velas, la música especial, el Desfile de Navidad de Montevallito, y especialmente las Fiestas de la Inmaculada Concepción y Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Por la intercesión de Nuestra Señora y las oraciones de nuestro patrón Santo Tomás, preparémonos para mucha alegría en la próxima celebración del nacimiento de nuestro Salvador.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
