"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit." ~ Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we continue to celebrate the coming of the Son of God among us, this weekend, we have a special observance of the Sunday of the Word of God. As Catholics, we believe that Christ is present whenever the words of Scripture are proclaimed, which is why Pope Francis began the new tradition of recognizing this special presence each year on the 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time in January. As part of our observance of this Sunday of the Word of God, I'd like to offer a few words here to deepen our reverence for Christ's presence in Scripture.

What is the Bible? Very simply, a collection of documents written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit that authoritatively witness to how God has revealed Himself to humankind. And the words of Scripture aren't just about the past—through them, God continues to speak to us, testifying to His love and desire for all of us to be saved.

This is why, in 1964, the Second Vatican Council wrote: "The Church has always venerated the divine Scriptures just as she venerates the body of the Lord, since, especially in the sacred liturgy, she unceasingly receives and offers to the faithful the bread of life from the table both of God's word and of Christ's body." In other words, the readings from Scripture in the first half of Mass parallel the receiving of Holy Communion in the second half of Mass. In both, God's Word becomes present to us and gives new life to our spirit.

Through the intercession of Mary, the Queen of the Apostles, and our patron St. Thomas, let's renew our commitment as God's People to listen always to His Holy Word. My prayer is that he will speak to all of us through the words of Scripture, this weekend and every time we gather!

God bless,

Fr Jantz

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Mientras continuamos celebrando la venida del Hijo de Dios entre nosotros, este fin de semana tenemos una observancia especial del Domingo de la Palabra de Dios. Como católicos, creemos que Cristo está presente cada vez que se proclaman las palabras de las Escrituras, razón por la cual el Papa Francisco comenzó la nueva tradición de reconocer esta presencia especial cada año el tercer domingo del Tiempo Ordinario en enero. Como parte de nuestra observancia de este domingo de la Palabra de Dios, me gustaría ofrecer aquí algunas palabras para profundizar nuestra reverencia por la presencia de Cristo en la proclamación de las Escrituras.

Entonces, ¿qué es la Biblia? Muy simple, una colección de documentos escritos bajo la inspiración del Espíritu Santo que atestiguan con autoridad cómo Dios se ha revelado a la humanidad. Y las palabras de las Escrituras no son solo sobre el pasado; a través de ellas, Dios continúa hablándonos, testificando de su amor y deseo que todos seamos salvos.

Por eso el Concilio Vaticano II en 1964 escribió: “La Iglesia ha venerado siempre las Sagradas Escrituras al igual que el mismo Cuerpo del Señor, no dejando de tomar de la mesa y de distribuir a los fieles el pan de vida, tanto de la palabra de Dios como del Cuerpo de Cristo, sobre todo en la Sagrada Liturgia.” En otras palabras, las lecturas de las Escrituras en la primera mitad de la Misa son como la recepción de la Sagrada Comunión en la segunda mitad. En esas dos maneras, la Palabra de Dios se hace presente en nosotros y da nueva vida a nuestro espíritu.

Por intercesión de María, la Reina de los Apóstoles, y de Santo Tomás, renovemos nuestro compromiso como Pueblo de Dios de escuchar siempre Su Santa Palabra. ¡Mi oración es que nos hable a todos a través de las palabras de las Escrituras, este fin de semana y cada vez que nos reunamos!

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
