Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

"Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit." ~ Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday's Gospel tells the story of the Transfiguration: the moment when Jesus went to pray upon a mountaintop with his three closest friends, and those disciples had a vision of Jesus' true identity. Reflecting on the story this week in light of our Lenten observances, I think it's a good opportunity to talk about prayer: specifically, how prayer changes things.

First, prayer changes our perspective: by taking the focus off ourselves and looking toward God's perspective, we become aware of how his presence is all around us. This is true even when we don't receive an immediate or obvious answer to a prayer request—having the confidence of entrusting everything to God.

Second, prayer changes us: when we entrust our needs to God, and when we listen carefully for his voice, we become the sort of people that the Gospel calls us to be. Seeing the world as God sees it—with love, with mercy—allows us to live the life of the Beatitudes, transfigured by the working of the Spirit.

Third, prayer changes the world: we call God all-powerful for a reason! And through prayer, he allows us to participate in his plans. People with the confidence of God's children, who have been transformed by an encounter with him, will make the greatest possible difference for those around them.

So with all that, I think this weekend is a good time for each of us to commit to deeper prayer this Lent. If you've already carved out some space in your schedule (maybe by fasting from a favorite activity), prayer is just the thing to put in its place. As we're sustained by the continual prayers of Blessed Mary Ever-Virgin and St. Thomas, let's ourselves become people of deeper prayer.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

A new ministry will soon start here at St. Thomas: a Prayer Shawl Ministry.

The idea is that interested parishioners will knit or crochet shawls at home, then bring them to church. They will be blessed. Parishioners may then take one to give or send the prayer shawl to someone they know who is suffering, sick, lonely, or has suffered the loss of a loved one. They may also be given for happier occasions such as a birth, an anniversary or other special events. Even if you don't know how to knit or crochet there are people who can teach you the easy stitches in creating a shawl. Another way you can help is to donate money to buy the yarn. There will be a meeting for anyone interested in this Ministry on March 12th, at 1:00 in the parish hall. Come and learn the details of knitting or crocheting a Prayer Shawl. There is a sign up sheet in the gathering space. If you are interested but cannot attend this meeting please call or email Margaret Rose at: 828-845-2130 marmouse2@yahoo.com.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

El Evangelio de este domingo cuenta la historia de la Transfiguración: el momento cuando Jesús fue a orar a la cima de una montaña con sus tres amigos más cercanos, y esos discípulos tuvieron una visión de la verdadera identidad de Jesús. Reflexionando sobre el Evangelio de esta semana a la luz de nuestras celebraciones de Cuaresma, creo que es una buena oportunidad para hablar sobre cómo la oración cambia las cosas.

Primero, la oración cambia nuestra perspectiva: al quitar nuestro foco egoísta y mirar con la perspectiva de Dios, nos damos cuenta de cómo su presencia está con nosotros todo el tiempo. Esto es cierto incluso cuando no recibimos una respuesta inmediata u obvia a una oración, porque aprendamos la confianza de confiar todo a Dios.

Segundo, la oración nos cambia: cuando confiamos nuestras necesidades a Dios, y cuando escuchamos atentamente su voz, nos convertimos en el tipo de personas que el Evangelio nos llama a ser. Ver el mundo como Dios lo ve—con amor, con misericordia—nos permite vivir la vida de los Evangelios, transfiguradas por la obra del Espíritu.

Tercero, la oración cambia el mundo: ¡decimos que Dios es todopoderoso por una razón! Y a través de la oración, Él nos permite participar en sus planes. Las personas con la confianza de los hijos de Dios, que han sido transformados por un encuentro con Él, harán la mayor diferencia posible para quienes nos rodean.

Entonces, creo que este fin de semana es un buen momento para un compromiso más profundo a la oración esta Cuaresma. Si ya has creado algo de espacio en su horario (tal vez ayunando de una actividad favorita), la oración es lo que puedes poner en su lugar. Sostenidos por las oraciones continuas de la Beata María Siempre Virgen y de Santo Tomás, profundicemos nuestro compromiso a la oración esta Cuaresma.

Dios los bendiga,
Padre Jantz
