Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit. Homily by Pope St John Paul II

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We're almost there—just one more week until Easter! And what a journey we'll be on this week, with many special opportunities for prayer and devotion. As part of the preparation for Easter, I'd encourage everyone to make a bit of room in their schedule for at least one of our special observances during Holy Week. You can find the full list on the Holy Week Flyer, in this bulletin, or on our website.

The liturgies of Holy Week are very ancient, and they speak beautifully about the heart of our faith: the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, the Liturgy of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, and the Great Vigil of Easter on Holy Saturday. The most important thing to keep in mind is that they're not just an exercise of imagination or a sort of reenactment. Within the celebration of Holy Week, the grace and power of the Paschal Mystery becomes present to us.

On Holy Thursday, we will experience the power of Christ's love, as he shows the meaning of his sacrifice through his priesthood and the gifts of bread and wine. On Good Friday, we'll stand with Mary and John at the Cross, with the same mix of grief and wonder they felt. And at the Easter Vigil, we'll experience the joy of the Resurrection of hope, as we pray through those quiet and mysterious hours when Christ rose from the dead.

It's going to be an amazing journey to the Upper Room, the Cross, and beyond. I look forward to walking it with all of you. Through the prayers of Mary, the Mother of Sorrows, and St. Thomas, may we experience the power of those events with them.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Hemos casi llegado a la Pascua—¡solo una semana más! En verdad, estaremos en un camino esta semana, con muchas oportunidades especiales para la oración y la devoción. Como parte de la preparación, animo a todos a hacer un poco de espacio en su horario para una de nuestras celebraciones especiales durante la Semana Santa. Hay una lista completa en el boletín, el flyer o en nuestro website.

Las liturgias de la Semana Santa son muy antiguas y hablan del corazón de nuestra fe: la Misa de la Cena del Señor el Jueves Santo, la Liturgia de la Pasión el Viernes Santo y la Gran Vigilia Pascual el Sábado Santo. Esas liturgias no son un ejercicio de imaginación o una especie de reconstrucción. Durante la celebración de la Semana Santa, la gracia y el poder del Misterio Pascual es presente para todos nosotros.

El Jueves Santo experimentaremos el poder del amor de Cristo, que muestra el significado de su sacrificio a través de su sacerdocio y los dones de pan y vino. El Viernes Santo, estaremos con María y Juan en la Cruz, con el mismo dolor y asombro que sintieron. Y en la Vigilia Pascual, experimentaremos el gozo y la nueva esperanza de la Resurrección, orando durante las horas tranquilas y misteriosas cuando Cristo resucitó de entre los muertos.

Va a ser un camino increíble al Cenáculo, la Cruz y más allá. Es una alegría poder caminarlo con todos ustedes. A través de las oraciones de María, la Madre Dolorosa, y de Santo Tomás, que experimentemos con ellos el poder de esos eventos

Dios los bendiga,

Padre Jantz
