

Black Hills notebook

for Thursday at Fort Meade Veterans Administration Hospital. The film will be shown at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Thursday in the Building 113 conference room. The program will be open to the public.

Photo contest

More than $5,000 in cash prizes will be awarded winners of the Governor's Photography Contest sponsored by the South Dakota Division of Tourism. Entries, necessary by Aug. 1, may be submitted in three media: black-and-white or color prints, or color slides. There are seven contest categories: the shape of South Dakota, the faces of South Dakota, South Dakota at work, South Dakota at play, South Dakota's western heritage, its religious, ethnic and cultural heritage, and a category called "anything goes." Twenty-one $250 Best of Class awards and an unlimited number of $50 Special Recognition awards will be given. Photographers may enter as many different prints and slides in as many categories as they wish, but may enter each print or slide in only one category. The contest is limited to state residents. For details write the South Dakota Tourism, 221 S. Central, Pierre, S.D. 57501.

Schools

Contest winners

These young people represent the first, second and third place winners of the Rapid City Parent-Teacher Association's "Life in These United States" contest. Visual art winners are: kindergarten through third grade - 1. Emily Schulz, 2. Benjamin Coleman, 3. Laura Pigsley; fourth through sixth grade - 1. Jennie Fleming, 2. Dana Hartman, 3. Tonya Colombe. Literature winners are: kindergarten through third

- 1. Sarah Churchwell, 2. Tara Peterson, 3. Evanthea Georgas; fourth through sixth - 1. Eric Barnby, 2. Amy Minchey, 3. Jill Weber. Music winners are: kindergarten through third - 1. Jed Wayland, 2. Jessica Catron, 3. Jill Killinger; fourth through sixth - 1. Jaime Clarke, 2. Vincent Han, 3. Freddy Berendss. (Staff photo by Don Polovich.)