We, and third parties that we work with, use cookies and other similar technologies. A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. We may use session cookies or persistent cookies. Session cookies only last for the specific duration of your visit and are deleted when you close your browser. Persistent cookies remain on your device's hard drive until you delete them or their expire. Different cookies are used to perform different functions, which we explain below:

- Essential – These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around our websites and use certain features, such as accessing secure areas of the websites. Without these cookies, we can't enable appropriate content based on the type of device you're using.
- Browsing and Functionality – These cookies remember choices you make on our websites. For instance, when you return to our websites after signing in, cookies help the websites remember who you are.
- Performance and Analytics – These cookies analyze data about webpage traffic. This helps us to improve our websites and tailor them to customer needs. We use Google Analytics, for example, to track website usage and activity. Google provides a complete privacy policy here and instructions on opting-out of Google Analytics here. Note that this opt-out is specific to Google activities and does not affect the activities of other ad networks or analytics providers that we may use.

Targeted advertising – We use cookies to compile information on our users interaction with our content. We use this information to serve ads to you and enable marketing tracking. Other than essential cookies which are required and necessary for the operation of our Services, once you agree to the use of non-essential cookies, the cookie file is added. You can remove your consent to cookies anytime by contacting us zoe@thezoe.one. Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. You can additionally modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. Please check your browser and browser settings to determine where these types of cookies are stored and whether and how they may be deleted. The Network Advertising Initiative also offers a means to opt-out of a number of advertising cookies. Please visit their website here to learn more and to opt-out, if desired. In any event, if you reject our cookies, you may still use the Services, but disabling cookies may prevent you from taking full advantage of the websites.
