1. What did Cyxtera announce on November 1, 2023?
   - We have entered into an asset purchase agreement with Brookfield Infrastructure Partners and its institutional partners (collectively “Brookfield”), under which Brookfield will acquire substantially all of Cyxtera’s assets for $775 million.
   - As part of the agreement, we will also increase our asset ownership with Brookfield’s purchase of the real estate where seven of our U.S. data centers are located.
   - With Brookfield, we will move ahead with a partner that recognizes the strength of our business and will provide the guidance and resources to help drive our next phase of growth.
   - This transaction represents a favorable path forward for our company and we look forward to entering this next phase under new ownership.
   - The agreement is subject to court approval, along with regulatory approval and other customary conditions, and is expected to close in the first quarter of 2024.

2. What is an asset purchase agreement (APA)?
   - An asset purchase agreement is an agreement between a buyer and a seller that sets forth the terms and conditions under which the buyer purchases a company from the seller.

3. Who is Brookfield?
   - Brookfield is a leading global infrastructure company that owns and operates high-quality, long-life assets in the utilities, transport, midstream, and data sectors across North and South America, Asia Pacific, and Europe.
   - With Brookfield’s deep global infrastructure expertise, experienced team, and demonstrated track record, we will move ahead with a partner that recognizes the strength of our business and will provide the guidance and resources to help drive our next phase of growth.

4. What will happen to Cyxtera common stock when the transaction closes? Will I receive any compensation if the stock is cancelled?
   - We will emerge from this process as a private company.
   - As we previously disclosed, our common stock ceased trading on Nasdaq on June 15, 2023 and commenced trading over the counter under the ticker symbol “CYXTQ” on June 16, 2023.
   - Holders of Cyxtera common stock will not receive any recovery or distribution upon completion of the transaction and existing equity interests will be cancelled.

5. Will Cyxtera issue quarterly earnings reports / resume investor calls after the transaction closes?
   - We will emerge from this process as a private company and do not expect to hold quarterly investor calls once the transaction is complete.