INFORMATION FOR THE UNEMPLOYED WORKER

Unemployed workers are eligible to receive unemployment benefits under certain conditions established by law. The Employment Security Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation is the agency designated to determine eligibility and issue benefit payments.

To receive unemployment benefits an unemployed person must:

1. Be unemployed through no fault of your own and meet all other conditions of the law regarding unemployment benefits.
2. File a claim online or with the Nevada Telephone Claim Center.
3. Be physically able to work.
4. Be available and willing to accept suitable employment if offered.
5. Make a reasonable and sincere effort to find a job.

Some reasons you may not qualify for unemployment benefits are:

1. If you quit your last job or next to last job without good cause.
2. If you were discharged from your last job or next to last job for misconduct in connection with your work.
3. If while receiving unemployment benefits you refuse an offer of suitable work without good cause.
4. If you give misinformation or withhold information concerning the reason for your separation from your last job.
5. If you fail to properly report wages earned by you regardless of amount.
