

Conference Producer - Finance / Investment Management, Full Time, London based

Company

Neudata is the authoritative global source of data intelligence, dedicated to finding alternative data for investment firms and corporations. Since its launch in 2016, Neudata has worked with thousands of data vendors across multiple sectors and has created Neudata Scout, the largest global roster of dataset insight. Neudata also runs the world's leading series of alternative data events, hosting thousands of delegates a year in Asia, Europe and the Americas.

Neudata helps 1000s of active data buyers, at the largest and most sophisticated investment and professional services firms globally, make better decisions about their data spend. Our unique position enables Neudata to provide its clients with accurate and up-to-date insights on the latest trends in data usage including the competitive environment, pricing, data demand, and compliance issues.

Job Description

This is a unique opportunity for a highly organised individual with 3+ years events experience (preferably in financial services/investment management) to join a fast-growing Fintech firm. Reporting to Neudata's Commercial Director – Data Provider Products, you will help us to develop, nurture and expand our events programme (in-person and online). Your role will focus on high quality content delivery, programming, operations and overall event management.

Applicants should be available immediately or ASAP. Please submit your cover letter and CV to hr@neudata.co

Responsibilities

- Deliver key events within Neudata's events portfolio (research, programming, and operations)
- Identify and acquire senior level speakers across all events
- Contribute to Neudata's outreach strategy, working closely with our marketing function to grow our events
- Ensure strong communication and collaboration with all internal and external stakeholders
- Develop strategic relationships with key suppliers
- Suggest compelling new topic and event ideas to management

Who we are looking for

- Degree level education
- 3+ year's event production experience (preferably in financial services/investment management)
- Exceptional organisational skills and multi-tasking abilities
- Strong MS Office skills
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- An interest in the world of Investment Management, Data and Business

Compensation

- Competitive base salary.
- 25 days of annual leave plus an additional day for each year worked.
- Flexible work from anywhere, hybrid and office-based work.
- Study days.
- Volunteering days.
- Employee referral bonus scheme.
- Private medical insurance including dental, optical, and hearing.
- Enhanced family policies.

- Company social events.
- Nest workplace pension scheme with Neudata matching employee contributions up to 10%.

Applicants must be eligible to work in the UK and should be available immediately or ASAP.
