Cancellation and Refund Conditions – Student Default
Student Default applies in the case where the course starts on the agreed start date, but the student does not start on the agreed start date and has not previously withdrawn from the course in writing within an agreed time prior to the course start date or the student cancels or withdraws from the course either before or after the agreed starting date. The following refund conditions apply: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- 100% refund of paid tuition fees applies if the student cancels 28 or more days before the course starts.</li> </ul> No refund of tuition fees applies if the student cancels after the census date of the unit of study. Note: In the case of compassionate or compelling circumstances the College may waive the above conditions and fees. Student must notify the College as soon as possible and submit a request in writing within 28 days of the date of their withdrawal / deferral. The agreed starting date is the date the course was scheduled to start or a later date agreed between Ella Bache and the student. This does not apply to approved deferment and leave of absence when the student applies for refund after the application was approved. Ella Bache College will make a refund within 28 days of receiving a written claim by the student in accordance with the Terms and Conditions as outlined in the course information. Refer to Fees and Refund Policy for more details.

Cancellation and Refund Conditions – Provider Default

If Ella Bache College defaults, that is, if the course does not start on the agreed starting date or the course ceases to be provided before it is completed, Ella Bache College will make every effort to transfer the students' enrolment to another college or pay a refund of the unused portion of the course money received from the student.

In such a case Ella Bache College will pay the student a refund which equals the amount of the total tuition fees paid for the remainder of the course not completed at the time of default, if an alternative placement with another provider cannot be found to the student's satisfaction. Such refunds will be made within 28 days following the default date with a statement explaining how the refund amount has been calculated.
