MEMBER NOTICES

This is a summary of important notices made available to all members prior to agreement and form part of our overall Terms and Conditions of use.

Fair Use Of Included Movies. The internal "on-demand" use of resources on the platform and community screening benefits of membership are intended to be of benefit to the member institution and the community they serve only and are subject to our fair use policy. Some examples breaching our fair use policy would include:

- A member sharing their login in with others outside of the institution to watch the movies for personal reasons - e.g. friends, peers or family members.
- A member hosting a community screening without first requesting a license to do so
- Broadcasting the movies over an online calling/conferencing tool such as Zoom or Microsoft teams for the purpose of hosting a "Virtual Lesson"
- A member giving a group of people the login for the purpose of independently watching the movie(s) e.g. A teacher giving their pupils / parents a login to watch as a homework assignment.

This is not an exhaustive list. Members are to refer to these Terms and Conditions to ascertain allowable usage of the Site and content and as detailed within the "Member Benefits". We reserve all rights to make decisions and/or take subsequent action, in relation to our fair use policy at our own discretion.

Primary User / Individual Users. Member institutions can create up to 50 individual users on their membership that will all have their own unique login credential to the platform. As part of the onboarding process, the member institution will be asked to provide the name and email address of their "Primary User".

The membership and initial sign in credential will be set up with this person as the "Account Owner". The primary user will then have responsibility for:

- Receiving and responding to any account communications from The Screenagers Project team.
- Account Ownership: Adding / Removing individual users to the membership account. (Max. 50)
  - The Primary User should ensure that any users set up are a member of the institutions' staff/faculty, or a relevant third party acting in this capacity (e.g. guest lecturer), without exception.

The primary user is able to handover their "Account Owner" status if needed (e.g. they are leaving their role at the member institution.) This is done within the account on the "Team Members" tab, but please contact support@thescreenagersproject.com if unsure how to do so.

Account Sharing & Login Protection. Sharing any user logins to the platform with anyone outside of the institutions' faculty/staff or third party acting in this capacity (e.g. guest lecturer) is strictly forbidden. Additionally, members are responsible for the security of their account, including login details and should take reasonable measures to protect this information, including making any individual users aware of their obligations in this regard.

Distribution of content and materials. Any and all content on the platform is intended for the benefit of licensees only and should not be downloaded, captured or otherwise shared with non-members unless otherwise stated (e.g. the "Parents Page")

Whitelisting. Members are responsible for ensuring the platform domain is added to any relevant "whitelists" of allowed websites if needed at their institution. In addition, the platform makes use of video embeds from vimeo.com for certain content and we would recommend that this is also added to any "whitelist" to ensure the full functionality of the Platform.

Cancellation and refunds. Membership is non-refundable, other than where such rights form a part of local laws.

Breach of Agreement: We reserve the right to restrict access to or terminate a membership without any remedy or refund of membership fees where any of the terms of this agreement are found to be breached.

MEMBERSHIP DURATION

All memberships offered are for a fixed period of 12 or 36 months, beginning from the point of acceptance of the new member agreement and will expire automatically at the conclusion of the selected term.

We reserve the right to change, modify, or remove the contents of the Site at any time or for any reason at our sole discretion without notice, other than the permanent removal of content that would result in the denial of one of the stated "Member Benefits" (e.g. Permanent removal of one of the core "Movies". ## GOVERNING LAW

These Terms and Conditions and your use of the Site are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, applicable to agreements made and to be entirely performed within the State of California, without regard to its conflict of law principles.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Informal Negotiations

To expedite resolution and control the cost of any dispute, controversy, or claim related to these Terms and Conditions (each a "Dispute" and collectively, the "Disputes") brought by either you or us (individually, a "Party" and collectively, the "Parties"), the Parties agree to first attempt to negotiate any Dispute (except those Disputes expressly provided below) informally for at least 180 days before initiating arbitration. Such informal negotiations commence upon written notice from one Party to the other Party.

Binding Arbitration

If the Parties are unable to resolve a Dispute through informal negotiations, the Dispute (except those Disputes expressly excluded below) will be finally and exclusively resolved by binding arbitration. You understand that without this provision, you would have the right to sue in court and have a jury trial.

The arbitration shall be commenced and conducted under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") and, where appropriate, the AAA's Supplementary Procedures for Consumer Related Disputes ("AAA Consumer Rules"), both of which are available at the AAA website www.adr.org. Your arbitration fees and your share of arbitrator compensation shall be governed by the AAA Consumer Rules and, where appropriate, limited by the AAA Consumer Rules.

The arbitration may be conducted in person, through the submission of documents, by phone, or online. The arbitrator will make a decision in writing, but need not provide a statement of reasons unless requested by either Party.

The arbitrator must follow applicable law, and any award may be challenged if the arbitrator fails to do so. Except where otherwise required by the applicable AAA rules or applicable law, the arbitration will take place in the state of California.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the Parties may litigate in court to compel arbitration, stay proceedings pending arbitration, or to confirm, modify, vacate, or enter judgment on the award entered by the arbitrator.

If for any reason, a Dispute proceeds in court rather than arbitration, the Dispute shall be commenced or prosecuted in the state and federal courts located in the state of California, and the Parties hereby consent to, and waive all defenses of lack of personal jurisdiction, and forum non conveniens with respect to venue and jurisdiction in such state and federal courts.

Application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and the the Uniform Computer Information Transaction Act (UCITA) are excluded from these Terms and Conditions.

In no event shall any Dispute brought by either Party related in any way to the Site be commenced more than 2 years after the cause of action arose. If this provision is found to be illegal or unenforceable, then neither Party will elect to arbitrate any Dispute falling within that portion of this provision found to be illegal or unenforceable and such Dispute shall be decided by a court of competent jurisdiction within the courts listed for jurisdiction above, and the Parties agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of that court.

Restrictions

The Parties agree that any arbitration shall be limited to the Dispute between the Parties individually. To the full extent permitted by law, (a) no arbitration shall be joined with any other proceeding; (b) there is no right or authority for any Dispute to be arbitrated on a class-action basis or to utilize class action procedures; and (c) there is no right or authority for any Dispute to be brought in a purported representative capacity on behalf of the general public or any other persons.

Exceptions to Informal Negotiations and Arbitration

The Parties agree that the following Disputes are not subject to the above provisions concerning [informal negotiations and] binding arbitration: (a) any Disputes seeking to enforce or protect, or concerning the validity of, any of the intellectual property rights of a Party; (b) any Dispute related to, or arising from, allegations of theft, piracy, invasion of privacy, or unauthorized use; and (c) any claim for injunctive relief. If this provision is found to be illegal or unenforceable, then neither Party will elect to arbitrate any Dispute falling within that portion of this provision found to be illegal or unenforceable and such Dispute shall be decided by a court of competent jurisdiction within the courts listed for jurisdiction above, and the Parties agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of that court.
