

Going Deeper

What does love look like? Read 1 Corinthians, chapter 13, verses 4 to 7. Do you think this is a complete list? What would you add or take away?

The volcanoes waited for each other and when the time was right, they were together. Are you waiting for love? Read Psalm 37, verse 4. Ask the Lord to help you put God first in your life and to help you wait for your hearts desire.

Read Matthew chapter 22, verses 37 to 40. How would our lives look if we followed these commandments? How would the world look if everyone followed the second commandment?

The BIG Question

What does it mean to love someone?

Family Film Short

I LAVA YOU

Step 1

Love is in the air! Get your candles lit, have strawberries, chocolates, love hearts, a sing-a-long!

Step 2
Snuggle in and watch the short!

Step 3

Have a chat (perhaps while you're doing the activities). What spoke to you in the short? Where do you see yourself or God in the short?

Step 4

Have a go at some of the activities!

Activities

Melt some chocolate and make love hearts. Have a chocolate fondue and dip different foods into the melted chocolate! Try strawberries, apples, oranges, even breadsticks! What tastes best?

Make a love token for someone such as a card, felted heart or picture. Is there someone far away that needs it?

How can you show your family that you really love them this week?

Perhaps you could tidy your room, or do the dishes? What other ways can you give/show your love?

Maybe you could hug them, or tell them how special they are to you.

Wondering

Everyone has their own 'love language', different ways that they feel loved. Some people feel loved when you do things for them.

Others feel loved when you tell them, or when you hug them.

What makes you feel loved? What do you think your 'love language' is?

Both volcanoes had to wait until the time was right for both of them to be together. What does it feel like to wait for someone special?

Why do you think its important to wait for love?

Love was the volcanoes first step in getting together. What do you think happens next in their story?
