NOTES:

Please complete the Request Form, regardless if the project has been quoted or given a verbal scheduling commitment. The form must be completed to ensure you and your customer's preferences (that can not be assumed by Modern Method Gunite). Payment must be submitted through our online portal or mailed to 21175 Tomball Parkway #333, Houston, Texas 77070 within ten days of completion, unless otherwise agreed upon or noted on invoice. Interest accrues on late payments at applicable maximum lawful rate and a lien will be filed. If a collection is referred to an attorney, legal fees and costs will be incurred by the builder. The estimated cost will be derived from proposal and all waivers from the proposal apply. // Modern Method Gunite is hereby granted released from any liability for damage caused to driveways or other means of access when the job site requires locating trucks within necessary distances to perform their work.

I understand and agree to the conditions listed above and I am authorized to sign this form.
