

Reveal

CONSULTING GROUP

ABOUT US

Reveal Consulting Group provides Construction Management and Virtual Design and Construction services to clients across the country. With over thirty years of combined retail & commercial construction experience and building information modeling experience, our goal is to lead the industry in leveraging innovative construction techniques for owners and general contractors.

We aspire to combine professional knowledge and technology to assist drafting, designing, coordinating, and managing construction projects as safely, efficiently, and quickly as technology and time will allow without interfering in current day-to-day operations of our clients.

WHAT WE CAN DO FOR YOU

Reality Capture

- Laser scanning
- 360-imaging site tours

3D/2D Modeling

- Architectural modeling
- MEP/structural modeling

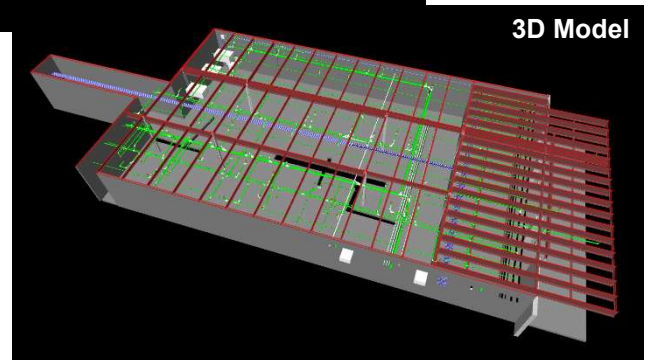

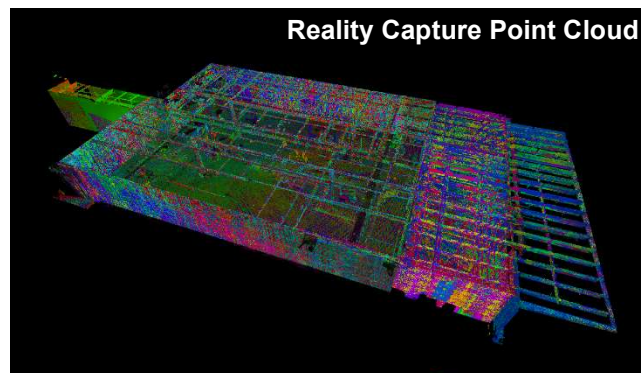

VDC Coordination

- Clash detection/resolution
- RFI & submittal management

Project Management

- Construction management
- Subcontractor management

THE REVEAL ADVANTAGE

Our clients save time and money by taking advantage of high-quality deliverables that allow them to identify and assess project risk before it's too late.

- Validate existing conditions with accurate existing conditions models and floor deviation reports
- Share high resolution digital immersive tours of brick and mortar spaces for remote users
- Identify & resolve design conflicts MEP and architectural plans with clash detection reports
- Receive process analysis to improve project management efficiency on complex or high-end retail, residential, or commercial office space projects