

Experimental Cocktail Club

We have been long fascinated by the Myth of Venice:
an island in perpetual motion, suspended in time and space.
“The people here, at each season seem to begin to live only at midnight.
If two people walk together arm in arm, they seem to converse in song; if there is company on the water, in a gondola, it is the same;
all the ballads in the streets are sung in duo.”

Charles Burney,
The Present State of Music in France and Italy, 1771
