

DANIEL WELSH

Daniel Welsh played for and served as the captain of the Scotland U18 National Team. He played with Livingston F.C. and won the National U19 League Championship as his team set a record with 94 goals scored across 20 games. His team also won the National U19 League Cup Tournament and made a National SFA Youth Cup U19 Semifinals appearance, losing to the eventual-winners, Celtic F.C. While playing for Cowdenbeath F.C., Daniel's team won the National U17 League Championship, the National U17 League Cup Tournament and the Manchester International Cup. Daniel also played for Hearts F.C.

Daniel attended the University of Maryland Baltimore County for his first two years of college. He garnered 2011 NSCAA All-Northeast Region Third Team, 2011 All-America East Second Team, and 2010 America East All-Rookie Team honors while playing with the Retrievers. He scored two goals during his freshman campaign and made a total of 29 starts in two seasons with UMBC. He also helped his team to an America East Tournament title and an NCAA Tournament Second Round appearance in 2010. Daniel was named to the 2011 America East All-Tournament Team and the BWI Classic All-Tournament Team. He finished his collegiate career playing for the University of California at Santa Barbara, where he made 35 starts.

Daniel is currently an assistant coach with George Mason University Men's Soccer and head coach of the BRYC Elite Academy ECNL U16 and U17 boys teams.
