

CHRIS JENNINGS

Chris is an experienced professional soccer coach who has trained and developed an assortment of skillful players across the DMV Metro Area. He currently serves as Boys ECNL Director at Braddock Road Elite Academy, Head Coach at Bishop O'Connell High School, and Virginia ODP State/District/Academy head coach. At BRYC he has led six teams to State Cup Finals. He has transformed the program at Bishop O'Connell and led them to championship matches in the prestigious and nationally-renowned Washington Catholic Athletic Conference (WCAC - 2016 Coach of the Year) and Virginia State Championships.

Many of Chris' former players have played collegiately at institutions such as the University of Virginia (2014 College Cup champions), Wake Forest (2016 College Cup finalists), Virginia Tech, West Virginia, High Point, George Mason, Akron, Penn State, Navy, Old Dominion, William & Mary, UCLA, VCU, etc. His invaluable experience in both the youth and professional soccer ranks has provided an outstanding platform for him to teach players and help them achieve their goals of reaching their next level. Jennings spent time with the NY/NJ Metrostars (NY Red Bulls) before moving on to D.C. United where he focused on soccer programs and youth club relations. He was part of a DCU staff that won MLS Cup in 2004, a 3-2 win vs Kansas City at the Home Depot Center in Los Angeles. In 2010, Chris was honored by Major League Soccer for numerous Best XI staff awards for his work at D.C. United.

Jennings played collegiately at DIII powerhouse York College of Pennsylvania where they went 55-28-3 with 2 CAC Finals appearances during his time. He also served as a volunteer assistant coach helping the coaching staff with scouting, recruiting, and daily training sessions

Collegiate
Player
York
College

Boys ECNL Director

Virginia
ODP
State/District
Academy
Coach

Head
Coach
Bishop
O'Connell

Soccer
Programs &
Youth Club
Relations