"If you have the opportunity to do amazing things in your life, I strongly recommend that you invite someone to accompany you."

Simon Sinek

Tomorrow has incredible things in store for us.
Let's go together and build the future?

We take on the responsibility of building the world we want to live in.

We break down barriers, break with standards and innovate,
because we know what the future holds for us.

FUTURE CAPITAL

We have a purpose with humanity

We want to build the future that we want to live.

We believe we can.

We think big. We think way beyond.

Our mission is to support companies that are creating solutions to the great challenges of humanity.

Connection, relevance and impact guides us.

Connection, relevance and impact guides us.

Having a connection with the subject is just the first step.

Inspiration comes from affinity.

Connection, relevance and impact guides us.

Relevant ideas with potential for transformation make us want to go further.

Connection, relevance and impact guides us.

Impact will always be our guide, because we want people to leave their mark on building a better world.

We connect to 4 categories
to build a prosperous future in different ways.

Tech

We support transformation through new emerging technologies. Mainly because that's the way to break with established patterns.

Health

Aiming for greater well-being for society is what guides our Health Tech sector. We want people to be able to make the most of their lives.

Green

Investing in the reality we want to live in means supporting businesses committed to building a prosperous and abundant future.

And to create this world, we need to take care of the planet and people. Investing in sustainable practices, offering scalable technologies and democratizing access to new ways of relating to the planet.

Lifestyle

Celebrating cultural diversity and respecting pre-existing communities are some of the ways we take care of community well-being and value what really matters.

In these areas, we invest in unique businesses and together we do amazing things for our world.

Tech

Space exploration. Disruptive devices. Information Security.
Immersive Experiences. Permanent innovation.

CAROLINA OLIVEIRA

OneSkin, Cofounder and CEO

“2Future was one of our early investors and believed in our mission from an early age.

They shared our vision and understood the time we needed to develop the science behind our products. The team is always available to help and establish strategic connections. Without 2Future, we wouldn't be here today, transforming the way humans experience aging.”

SLY LEE, ISAAC CASTRO E MAURICIO TERAN

Emerge, Founders

In an era where capital has become a commodity, it was really refreshing to have the 2Future team go the extra mile to help us when we needed it most. Team members not only roll up their sleeves to help the founders they support, they are BIG dreamers like us.”

CHRIS STOTT

Lonestar, CEO

Many people say they are looking for ideas capable of changing the world, but 2Future Holdings acts for that and, in this way, opens paths for the creation of new markets, new values and a better future for all of us. While others speak, 2Future Holdings acts. I strongly recommend them.
