As the only boarding school in Silicon Valley, Woodside Priory School sits in one of the most exciting and dynamic places in the world. The campus is surrounded by Fortune 500 companies, top universities, mountains, horse farms, trails and beaches.

Education at Woodside Priory is about more than just college preparation. Students at Woodside Priory find the best of both worlds: The 50-acre campus feels like a rural oasis, yet it is easily accessible, only 10 minutes from Stanford University and 40 minutes from the beautiful city of San Francisco.

Classes meet three times a week for 60-90 minutes so that students can engage deeply in conversations, group work and labs. Students can choose from over 20 AP and college-level courses and over 30 elective courses. Full-time residential faculty members pay personal attention to each boarding student, forming a family-like community.
