

The House Rules

Club Attire & Dress Code

A STYLE GUIDE

A visual guide to the Club Rules.

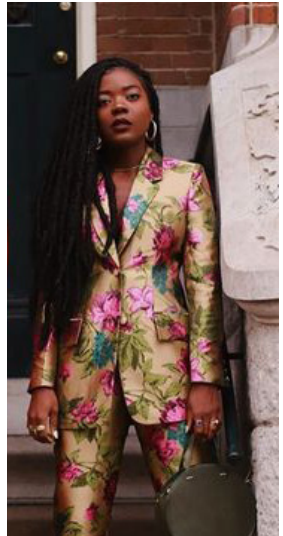

I. The Club is an experience of over 125 years in the making, a nexus between Vancouver's storied heritage and its bright future. The Club is a place for Members to relax, entertain, connect with other business professionals and similar types of people and enjoy extraordinary events in a sophisticated environment.*

* HOUSE RULES | APPROVED BY THE BOARD MAY 7TH, 2021

We are our best together.

THE LOOK

MODERN, STYLISH, THE BEST OF YOU

DECODED

Embrace the occasion of the Club, a place to recognize & pursue your potential. This is your Club, bring your full self.

Your Club, every day.

3.2 Management asks Members and their Guests for a tasteful, well-presented and on-brand approach to attire when visiting the Club.

3.3 Business suits, sports jackets, or sweaters/cardigans coordinated with pants, skirts, or dresses are requested. Shirts are to be collared. Dark jeans and a suit jacket or sports jacket are acceptable unless restricted for a specific Club event. Coordinated footwear should be paired accordingly. *

* HOUSE RULES | APPROVED BY THE BOARD MAY 7TH, 2021

Here, we experience the best of what life offers.

3.5 Special Event Attire:

(a) Cocktail: Business suit or stylish jacket matched with slacks/skirt with an appropriate dress shirt. Tie or bow tie is optional. Dressy pantsuit, jumpsuit, or chic party dress. Coordinated footwear should be paired accordingly.

SPECIAL EVENTS

COCKTAIL & EVENING WEAR

DECODED

Suitable for any evening, ideal for most Club events.
Jacket or cocktail dress; less formal, always elegant.

Together, we celebrate.

3.5 Special Event Attire:

(b) Formal/Black Tie: Dark suit or tuxedo. Tie or bow tie, or cultural equivalent. Long gown, elegant pantsuit/dress. Coordinated footwear should be paired accordingly.

SPECIAL EVENTS

BLACK TIE

DECODED

Dinner jacket, black suit or cultural equivalent.

Evening dresses, longer in length.

Be creative with colour & texture.

Style that's always in season.

There are times when style and elegance are not so buttoned down. Management asks Members and their Guests to approach these occasions with a fresh, yet polished sartorial attitude.

RELAXED ELEGANCE

FALL/WINTER & FAMILY EVENTS

DECODED

Take a stylish approach to cool weather dressing.
Clean, relaxed tailoring with a fresh feel.

INAPPROPRIATE ATTIRE

WHAT NOT TO WEAR

3.4 Inappropriate Attire, as defined in House Rule 21.1(i), shall not be worn at the Club.

(i) “Inappropriate Attire” includes:

(i) Cargo pants;

(ii) Denim – light blue*, faded, ripped, frayed, distressed, or beige;

(iii) Casual long or short sleeve T-shirts;

(iv) Apparel with advertising messages or slogans;

(v) Ball caps;

(vi) Miniskirts;

(vii) Crop tops, halter tops, exposed undergarments, see-through fabrics;

(viii) Leisurewear, microfiber zip jackets, sweatshirts, sweatpants, warm-up suits, hoodies; and

(ix) Hiking-style boots, rain boots, beach-type sandals, runners, joggers;

3.6 Members and Guests are requested to leave outerwear (including coats, hats, scarves, gloves, and winter boots) in the lobby cloakrooms.

*Denim in this shade of blue or darker is acceptable.

What is ideal for...

the gym

the mountain

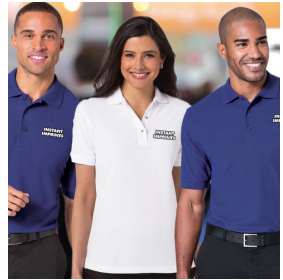

camping

playing baseball

the beach

a conference

a music festival

a winter hike

a 70's album cover

...is not suited for your Clubhouse.

915 West Hastings Street
Vancouver, BC
V6C 1C6
604 685 9321
vancouverclub.ca