Disclaimers and Forward-Looking Statements

This document is for internal use only and should only have been obtained after signing a confidentiality agreement. The contents of this document shall not be regarded as any form of offer or binding commitment by Powermers Smart Industries, Inc. ("PSI", "Powermers Smart Industries", or "Company") and its partner companies. This document is only intended for the intended recipient as information for reference purposes and is intended for a recipient as an investor with extensive financial experience and knowledge. This document does not provide any statement or express or implied statement or warranty. In any case, neither PSI nor any of its subsidiaries, shareholders, affiliates, representatives, partners, directors, officers, employees, consultants or agents shall be responsible for any direct or indirect losses caused by use of this document and its content, as well as omissions or reliance on any information within. The industry and market data used in this document come from third-party industry publications and sources, and research reports prepared for other purposes. PSI has not independently verified the data obtained from these sources, nor can it guarantee the accuracy or completeness of the data. In addition, this document is not intended to be all-inclusive or contain all the information that may be necessary for a comprehensive analysis of the PSI business portfolio. The recipients of this document should make their own evaluation of PSI and the relevance and sufficiency of the information and should carry out other investigations as they deem necessary. Regarding the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, certain statements contained in this presentation that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are often accompanied by words such as "believe," "may", "will", "estimate", "continue", "expect", "intend", "should", "plan", "forecast", "potential", "seek", "future", "look ahead", "target", "design", "develop", "aim" and similar expressions to predict or indicate future events or trends. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the use of the Company's technology in pursuit of a carbon neutral future, the development and utilization of the Company's technologies in various sectors, licensing and other transactions with manufacturing partners and other third parties, estimates and forecasts of other financial and performance indicators and predictions of market opportunities. These statements are based on various assumptions (whether determined in this document) and the current expectations of PSI management, rather than predictions of actual performance. These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only, and are not intended for an investor, nor as a guarantee, prediction or authoritative statement of any fact or probability. Actual events and situations are difficult or unpredictable and may differ from assumptions. Many actual events and situations are beyond PSI control. These forward-looking statements are subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties, including the inability to develop or monetize the Company's technologies in a timely or successful manner, the Company's ability to enter into licensing, manufacturing and other agreements with third parties on satisfactory terms, the changes in domestic and foreign business, market, financial, political, and legal conditions; the parties' inability to complete the proposed business combination successfully or in a timely manner, including the failure to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals, risk of delay or the effects of unforeseen conditions that could adversely affect the expected benefits of the merged Company or the proposed business or the failure to obtain approval from PSI shareholders; the inability to realize the expected benefits of the proposed business merger; risks of uncertainty; risks related to the launch of the PSI business and the timing of expected business milestones; the impact of competition on PSI future business, etc. If any of these risks become a reality, or if our assumptions prove to be incorrect, the actual results may differ materially from the results implied by these forward-looking statements. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect PSI expectations, plans, or forecasts of future events and opinions on the date of this presentation. PSI expects that subsequent events and developments will cause PSI assessment to change. However, although PSI may choose to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, PSI expressly rejects any obligation to do so. Any date after the date of publication of this document should not rely on these forward-looking statements to represent PSI assessment. Therefore, you should consult with your professional advisors to make your own determination and not rely on the forward-looking statements in this document.

Use of predictive content

This document contains estimated financial information about PSI, forward-looking information and is for illustrative purposes only and should not be regarded as an inevitable basis for future results. The assumptions and estimates are inherently uncertain and subject. Such forecasted financial information constitutes a variety of major business, economic, competition, and other risks and uncertainties. Please refer to the "forward-looking statement" above. Actual results may differ materially from the results expected from the financial forecast information contained in this document.

This document does not constitute an offer or solicitation

This document does not constitute an offer or invitation to sell any securities. Prior to registration or qualification confirmation on securities, there is no offer in any jurisdiction, and any offer or sale of securities is illegal in the laws of such jurisdiction. No securities will be issued unless a prospectus that/or complies with Article 10 of the US Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) is passed.

Trademarks

This document contains trademarks, service marks, trade names and copyrights of PSI and other companies, which are the property of their respective owners.
