

Sorrisniva Igloo Hotel

General Information

Check in: From 12 am Check out: Before 10 am

Included:

- Your overnight igloo room / suite
- Luggage storage in main building, locker for valuables
- Extreme sleeping bag
- Sauna in the morning between 7 and 10 am (towel provided)
- Shared (separate) shower facilities for Ladies and Men (towel and hairdryer provided)
- Gourmet breakfast buffet with local ingredients and home-made bread served in the Laavu Restaurant between 8 and 10 am
- Wi-Fi

Facilities:

- Reception
- Gift Shop with local craft and merchandise
- Lounge with coffee / tea
- Laavu Restaurant for breakfast (included) and lunch / dinner (additional cost)

Available for general use:

- Snowshoes, kick-sleds & toboggan sleds (in winter and spring)
- Marked hiking trails in the surrounding area (all-year)

Available for purchase:

- Spa treatments
- Wide range of outdoor nature experiences

What to bring:

- Wool underwear (100% wool is recommended) or pajamas to sleep in
- Warm clothes including gloves and scarf for viewing the Igloo Hotel
- Slippers to wear inside the adjoining lounge and common facilities
- Small bag to bring your toiletries and change of clothes from the luggage storage room to the shared shower facilities

Sleeping in the Igloo Hotel:

Sleeping in the Igloo Hotel is a unique experience which you will remember as a special experience in your life.

The temperature inside the igloo hotel is between -4 and -7 degrees requiring warm clothing when viewing and exploring the fantastic ice sculptures or having a drink at the ice bar. Your ice bed is covered with a mattress, reindeer skins and your extreme sleeping-bag and pillow will keep you warm and comfortable during the night. Wear wool or fleece underwear for the best comfort.

In the morning enjoy a traditional sauna before joining us in the Laavu restaurant for your gourmet breakfast.

