IMATA PUBLICATION TITLE (Journal, Magazine, Conference, Book, Presentation, Website):

Copyright Transfer

The undersigned hereby assigns to the International Marine Animal Trainers Association (“IMATA”) and the Animal Behavior Management Alliance (“ABMA”) all rights under copyright that may exist in and to the above Work, and any revised or expanded derivative works submitted to IMATA by the undersigned based on the Work. The undersigned hereby warrants that the Work is original and that he/she is the author of the Work; to the extent the Work incorporates text passages, figures, data or other material from the works of others, the undersigned has obtained any necessary permissions. See reverse side for Retained Rights and other Terms and Conditions.

Author Responsibilities

IMATA distributes its technical publications throughout the world and wants to ensure that the material submitted to its publications is properly available to the readership of those publications. It is the responsibility of the authors, not IMATA or ABMA, to determine whether disclosure of their material requires the prior consent of other parties and, if so, to obtain it. Further, it shall be acknowledged that statements and opinions given in work published by IMATA or ABMA are the expression of the authors, not IMATA, ABMA or their Board of Directors. Responsibility for the content of published Work rests upon the authors, not IMATA or ABMA.

General Terms

• The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.
• The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless IMATA and ABMA from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.
• In the event the above work is not accepted and published by IMATA or ABMA or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by IMATA or ABMA, the foregoing copyright transfer shall become null and void and all materials embodying the Work submitted to IMATA will be destroyed.
• For jointly authored Works, all joint authors should sign, or one of the authors should sign as authorized agent for the others.

U.S. Government Employee Certification (where applicable)

This will certify that all authors of the Work are U.S. government employees and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of their official duties. As such, the Work is not subject to U.S. copyright protection.

(2) ________________________________________________  ________________________________________________
Authorized Signature                                          Date

(Authors who are U.S. government employees should also sign signature line (1) above to enable IMATA and ABMA to claim and protect its copyright in international jurisdictions.)

Crown Copyright Certification (where applicable)

This will certify that all authors of the Work are employees of the British or British Commonwealth Government and prepared the Work in connection with their official duties. As such, the Work is subject to Crown Copyright and is not assigned to IMATA or ABMA as set forth in the first sentence of the Copyright Transfer Section above. The undersigned acknowledges, however, that IMATA and ABMA has the right to publish, distribute and reprint the Work in all forms and media.

RETAINED RIGHTS/TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Authors/employers retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Work.

2. Authors/employers may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the Work, material extracted verbatim from the Work, or derivative works for the author’s personal use or for company use, provided that the source and IMATA and ABMA copyright notice are indicated, and that the copies are not used in any way that implies IMATA or ABMA endorsement of a product or service of any employer.

3. In the case of a Work performed under a U.S. Government contract or grant, IMATA and ABMA recognizes that the U.S. Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the Work, and to authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purposes only, if the contract/grant so requires.

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

IMATA Copyright Ownership

It is the formal policy of IMATA and ABMA to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its technical publications and to the individual contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of IMATA and ABMA, its authors and their employers, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate re-use of this material by others. IMATA and ABMA distribute their technical publications throughout the world and does so by various means such as hard copy, live presentations, and electronic media. It also abstracts and may translate its publications, and articles contained therein, for inclusion in various compendiums, collective works, databases and similar publications.

Author/Employer Rights

If you are employed and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, IMATA and ABMA assumes that when you sign this Form, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright, to the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of this Form. If such authorization and consent has not been given to you, an authorized representative of your employer should sign this Form as the Author.

Reprint/Republication Policy

IMATA and ABMA requires that the consent of the first-named author and employer be sought as a condition to granting reprint or republication rights to other parties.
