

Dr. Ognjen Kraus

Coordinating Committee of the Jewish
Communities in Croatia President

Dr. Ognjen Kraus, a native of Zagreb, earned his medical degree from the School of Medicine at the University of Zagreb. After completing his studies, he undertook specialized training in urology across various European cities. Notably, he served as the head of the urology department at the Sisters of Charity Hospital. In recognition of his contributions, he received an award from the city of Zagreb in 2001 for his scientific and professional work.

Dr. Kraus became an influential figure within the Jewish community. He assumed the presidency of the Jewish Community of Zagreb in 1993 and has remained a dedicated member of the community's leadership.

In 1978, Kraus married Sanja (née Milković) Kraus. Kraus has a stepson Saša, and a son Jaša. Saša lived in Israel for seven years and has served in the Israel Defense Forces. He now lives in Canada with his family. Kraus's younger son Jaša is a lawyer. He has a twin sister Živa, who is a prominent painter.
