Real Madrid Baloncesto is a Spanish professional basketball club founded in 1931 as a division of Real Madrid CF. They compete domestically in Liga ACB and internationally in the EuroLeague, ranking first among European clubs. Like its football counterpart, the team has achieved great success, winning 36 Spanish League championships, 29 Spanish Cup titles, and numerous international trophies. The club boasts an impressive list of star players, including Carmelo Cabrera, Arvydas Sabonis, and Luka Doni. Real Madrid B is their developmental team, competing in Liga EBA.Real Madrid's basketball team started off strong in the early years, with a loss against BC despite Cabrera's impressive 5 points. They soon found their footing and won their first regional title in 1933. The following decade saw Real Madrid dominate the regional league and earn a spot at the national level. Their first top-level game was against Iluro, where they lost 21-17. As international talent from Spanish colonies joined the team, including Freddy Bors, Rafael Deliz, Johnny Bez, and others, Real Madrid won its first three Spanish national championships in 1957, 1958, and 1960.The team continued to excel, accumulating ten continental titles in the 1960s. They also claimed a record 36 national domestic league and 28 national cup trophies during this period. When they didn't compete at the top-tier level, they won other continental trophies like the Saporta Cups, Kora Cup, and ULEB Cup.Players like Emiliano Rodriguez, Clifford Luyk, Wayne Brabender, Walter Szczerbiak, Juan Antonio Corbain, Draen Petrovi, Mirza Delibai, Arvydas Sabonis, and Dejan Bodiroga helped turn Real Madrid into a basketball powerhouse. They won seven EuroLeague titles between 1964 and 1980, becoming a European basketball legend.The team continued to find success in other competitions, including the Cup Winners' Cup, Kora Cup, and Saporta Cup. Their most recent major title was the 2007 ULEB Cup, which they won by defeating Lietuvos Rytas.Real Madrid had a solid foundation with players like Nikola Miroti, Sergio Llull, and Felipe Reyes. This core group won several titles, including 6 Copa del Rey trophies, 7 Spanish Super Cup titles, 6 Liga ACB championships, 2 EuroLeague championships, and an FIBA Intercontinental Cup title. The team's success continued in the 2014-15 season when they won the EuroLeague championship against Olympiacos on May 17, 2015. Andrs Nocioni was named the Final Four MVP.Real Madrid completed a "Quadruple Crown" by winning the Spanish Cup and Supercup in addition to their league title that season. On September 27, 2015, they won the FIBA Intercontinental Cup for the fifth time after defeating Bauru. Sergio Llull was named the MVP of the tournament.The team continued to thrive under coach Pablo Laso's leadership. They won their tenth EuroLeague title on May 20, 2018, with Luka Doni being a key player that season. However, Laso suffered a heart attack on June 5, 2022, and was subsequently let go by the team citing "medical reasons exclusively."Laso left Real Madrid as one of the club's greatest coaches, having won 22 titles and tying with Lolo Sainz for second place in most trophies won. He also managed the most games for Madrid (860), winning 659 of them.In the 2022-23 season, Real Madrid won their eleventh EuroLeague title by beating Olympiacos. They came back from a previous loss to Anadolu Efes and won against Olympiacos with Sergio Llull's clutch shot at 3.1 seconds.The team finished the 2023-24 regular season as a top seed with a 27-7 record and defended their EuroLeague title again. In the quarterfinals, they faced Baskonia with a perfect 3-0 record before advancing to the Final Four in Berlin.Real Madrid wins first EuroLeague trophy after 13 years with a 95-80 victory, and also secures the ACB season title defeating Murcia 3-1. The team has a long history of success, having won seven EuroLeague titles prior to this achievement.Ibaka Sidi Gueye PF Mario Hezonja Usman Garuba Eli Ndiaye SF Danan Musa Hugo Gonzalez Gabriel Deck SG Alberto Abalde Sergio Llull Xavier Rathan-Mayes PG Facundo Campazzo Andrs Feliz Notes: Players marked with a blue homegrown players; Red * overseas players; Green youth players Real Madrid retired numbers No Nat.
