Gare triathlon 2025

The Italian Triathlon Federation (F.I.Tri) was founded in 2000 and is responsible for promoting triathlons, duathlons, and aquathlons in Italy. The federation has several local affiliates across different regions. The F.I.Tri is governed by the Italian National Olympic Committee and the European Triathlon Union.The organization's president is Luigi Bianchi, who took over from Marco Sbernadori, the founder of the A.I.T (Associazione Italiana Triathlon) in 1985. The federation has a rich history of hosting national championships for triathlons, duathlons, and aquathlons, with the first event taking place in 2000. Some notable Italian triathletes include Alessandro Fabian, who won seven consecutive national titles from 2009 to 2017, and Annamaria Mazzetti, who won four national titles from 2009 to 2015. The federation has also produced several international medalists.The text provides a list of national championship winners for triathlons on the Olympic distance (1.5km swim, 40km bike, 10km run) from 2017 to 2024, as well as winners of duathlon and aquathlon events since their inception in 1994 and 2000, respectively.Overall, the F.I.Tri plays a crucial role in promoting triathlons and related sports in Italy, providing opportunities for athletes to compete at various levels.Oriana September 27, 2003. Get ready for a journey of unparalleled athleticism and camaraderie across some of Europe's most stunning locations!Recently, on Fitri Live, the official calendar presentation for the 2025 Season took place with the participation of Riccardo Giubilei, President of the Italian Triathlon Federation; Filippo Caporali, Commissioner for Events; Martina Abaterusso, Commissioner for Paratriathlon; and Giuseppe Lamastra, Commissioner for Athletes. The event covered Campionati Italiani, Circuiti Nazionali Campionati Italiani Assoluti e di Categoria, Campionati Giovanili, Coppa Italia, Paratriathlon, and more.According to Caporali, "We have assigned the Italian Championships and all the stages of the National Circuits for a season that is already looking particularly exciting. And, after many years, we are also announcing the return of the Super Long title, as well as the establishment of the Aquathlon and No Draft circuit." Abaterusso added, "It makes us very happy to continue investing in events that can include all categories of athletes Now, the stages of the Ips Circuit have increased to seven with the return of a historic event like the one planned for Lido delle Nazioni. Comacchio "Regarding Winter Triathlon, a discipline that has brought great satisfaction especially after Franco Pesavento and Sandra Mairhofer's victories in the past edition of the World Championships in Pragelato, there will be four appointments in as many different regions, explained by Lamastra: "We are happy to have announced two new locations for events. This signals how much enthusiasm is growing among territories in hosting our competitions. And then an important novelty: the establishment of the Italian Winter Duathlon title that will follow World Triathlon dynamics."In the period between January 16th and 19th, 2025, two major events are scheduled to take place in the Altopiano delle Rocche area and in the town of Roccaraso.
