

Click to prove you're human

Meta summer 2025 internship

Meta University, Engineering Internship Application Now Open! Meta University is a paid summer internship program designed to provide technical skill development and professional work experience to students from diverse backgrounds. The 10-week program in Menlo Park, CA, focuses on teaching fundamentals and offering mentorship. Eligibility Requirements: * Current first-year or second-year students (Class of 2028 or Class of 2027) * Authorization to work in the US * Age 18 by May 2025 * Ability to work June-August 2025 How to Apply: Upload a PDF of your resume and upload a PDF/screenshot copy of college transcripts. Apply today! Meta Technology Internship Opportunities Emphasize Collaboration, Skill Development, and Competitive Compensation Meta AI Residency Program Offers Comprehensive Training for Underrepresented Students The Meta AI Residency Program is a highly competitive initiative that provides advanced AI research training to students from underrepresented backgrounds. The program combines training, mentorship, and project work to give participants a solid foundation in the tech industry. Summer Internship Program at Meta Provides Valuable Experience for Students Meta's Summer Internship Program offers general internships across various departments, including engineering, product management, marketing, and more. The program provides hands-on experience and valuable mentorship to undergraduate and graduate students. Engineering Bootcamp Preparing New Graduates for Roles at Meta The Engineering Bootcamp is a training program that familiarizes new engineering interns with Meta's technologies and work processes. The program features intensive training sessions, workshops, and project work, and is open to engineering students and new graduates with strong technical skills. Meta Data Challenge Aims to Develop Data Science Skills in Students The Meta Data Challenge is a program dedicated to data science and analytics. Interns tackle real-world data challenges and create data-driven solutions, receiving training, project work, and mentorship from experienced data scientists. University Grad Internship Program Helps Recent Graduates Transition into Roles at Meta The University Grad Internship Program is tailored for recent graduates aiming to transition into full-time roles at Meta. The program combines training, project work, and mentorship to help new graduates smoothly integrate into Meta's work environment. Product Design Internship Focuses on UI/UX Design and Product Development The Product Design Internship at Meta focuses on UI/UX design, graphic design, and product development roles. Interns work on designing user interfaces and enhancing user experience through various projects, collaborating with product teams and receiving mentorship from senior designers. Meta Offers Various Popular Roles for Interns Meta offers various popular roles for interns, including Software Engineering, Data Science, Product Management, and Design. Meta interns focus on various aspects such as market research, business strategies, partnership development, digital marketing, social media management, brand strategy, project management, process optimization, and logistical support. The company continues to prioritize its internship programs despite recent hiring slowdowns and economic climate changes. Internships serve as a pipeline for future full-time employees.

Meta university internship summer 2025. Meta undergraduate internships summer 2025. Meta summer internship 2025 india. Meta summer 2025 internship high school. Future summer olympics locations. Meta summer 2025 internship reddit. Meta swe internship summer 2025. Meta 2023 summer internship.