were played). Both the winners and the runners-up qualified for the four-team 2026 Supercopa de Espaa.Athletic Bilbao were the defending champions, having beaten Mallorca in the final of the previous edition, but were eliminated in the round of 16 by Osasuna.[2][3]The final was held at La Cartuja in Seville between Barcelona and Real Madrid on 26 April 2025, with the Catalans defeating their rivals 32 after extra time for a record-extending 32nd title. As winners, Barcelona were assured a place in the 202526 UEFA Europa League league phase; however, since they had already qualified for European competition via league standings, their place was passed down to the seventh-placed team in La Liga and the UEFA Conference League spot reserved for the seventh-placed team was awarded to the team who finished eighth in the league. As across Spain, match times up to 26 October 2024 and from 30 March 2025 are CEST (UTC+2). Times on interim ("winter") days are CET (UTC+1). Matches played in the Canary Islands use the WET (UTC00:00).In the summer of 2024, the RFEF released the calendar of the competition and confirmed the format of the previous season would remain.[citation needed]RoundDraw dateDateFixturesClubsFormat detailsPreliminary round16 September 20249 October 202410120 110New entries: Clubs qualified through the 202324 sixth tier.Opponents
