iMarketsLive: A Review of Their Business Model and Compensation Plan ===== As I delikate to learn more about iMarketsLive, I found that it is a company founded by its CEO Christopher Terry. However, he has been involed in other MLM companis, such as Amway. The site was registered in 2013 and later repurposed for the business in late 2016. iMarketsLive does not have any physical or digital products for selling. You can promote their membership after you join them as an affiliate member. They provide Live Trading Room for their members, which is hosted daily with expert traders to see what they are doing each day to win in the markets. The iMarketsLive compensation plan is based on a unilevel structure with four levels of direct sales commission and a Fast Start Bonus. You must become a member first, then you can get paid for recruiting people into your downline. However, I have some reservations about this company. There were scam alerts against its CEO, which does not give me confiden in the companys trading operashun. Also, there is no other information about his other team members and how he actually runs the trading operation. In conclusion, iMarketsLive does not seem to be a good company to invest in. However, if you are looking to earn a substantial income from home, I recommend establishing "multiple" streams of income. Looking forward to secin everyone at the meetin tomorrow and discuss our strategi's. ===== May 13, 2020 by Finance Guy IM Mastery Academy, was launchd in 2013. Originally known as iMarketsLive, they sell their financial tradin and education softwar. Along with the range of IM Academy servises, they claim that their software can trade for you. All you have to do is turn it on, and it will copy the trades of 'experts' on the Foreign Exchange market. They also offer a bunch of packages they call the IM Academies. IM Mastery has choosd to sell the iMarketsLive system through network marketin. ===== How Do You Make Money With IM Mastery Academy If you join iMarketsLive, they say their philosophi is to educat, empower, and enrich. To understand how this business opportunity works, the best document available online was a copy of the 2016 iMarketsLive Compensation Plan. This documents explains all the different way you can earn an income through the IM Mastery Academy ===== The first thing we learn is that becoming an Independent Business Owner (IBO) with IM Academy, will set you on the path to 'securing your financial future'. You can join the compensation plan without buying any product. You would just need to pay the $15 monthly fee to be an IBO. ===== If you do become an IBO, then they do recomend that you also become a member of their 'Platinum Package'. This package gives you access to the full range of IM Mastery Academy products and services. The Platinum Package will cost you $324.94 upfront, then $274.95 per month. ===== The first way you can earn is by recomendin 2 friendz to also buy the Platinum Package from iMarketsLive. If you do this, then you will get your package for free. IM Mastery calls this the 2 and Free promotion. ===== Platinum BonusLike all MLMs, the commission doesn't end at just making salez yourself. You can also make money by recruitin others to join IM Academy as IBOs. IM Mastery Academy pays a fixed weekly amount of residual income. The amount each IBO earnz dependz on their rank and their Group Volume (GV) with IM Mastery Academy. IM Mastery Academy Bonuses and Income Disclosure Analysis ===== As an IM Mastery Academy IBO, it's essential to understand the various bonuses and commissions available throughout the ranks. With each rank, you'll earn a specific amount of $150 per week, which is quite respectable. However, keep in mind that there's also a minimum GV (Global Volume) requirement of $1,740. The Chairman Infinity Bonus is only available to IBOs who reach the chairman rank or above. This bonus is paid on top of the platinum bonus and can earn up to 2% ($40,000 per leg) in commissions. Unlike the platinum bonus, you can earn this on all your legs, with no upside limit on your weekly earnings. Another notable bonus is the Rank Achievement Bonus, which provides a one-off payment for achieving a given rank with IM Mastery Academy. You'll need to remain qualified during the 'payout period' to receive this payment. To determine if IBOs are making money with IM Mastery Academy, we analyzed the 2018 and 2020 iMarketsLive income disclosure documents. Unfortunately, the numbers show that only a small percentage of IBOs achieve significant income. According to the data, in 2018: - 87.13% of IBOs failed to reach any promotions with iMarketsLive. - Only 20,107 IBOs earned any income at the entry rank, while 25,817 earned nothing. - The average annual income for those at the IBO rank was $52, but only 0.11% of all IBOs reached the top levels and earned a full-time income. In 2020: - 99.21% of IBOs earned less than $25,000 in commissions. - There's a significant difference between income and profit, as these figures don't include expenses incurred. It's also worth noting that IM Mastery has only included IBOs who earned a commission in their income disclosure documents, disregarding those who earned nothing. This highlights the difficulty in making money with iMarketsLive due to its business model. The problem lies not just with IM Mastery Academy but with the direct selling industry as a whole. According to Jon Taylor's book, Multi-level Marketing Unmasked, 99.7% of people who join direct selling companies end up losing money. IM Mastery Academy: Is it an Illegal Pyramid Scam? iMarketsLive Compensation Plan - A Review of the Opportunity ===== I was able to turn a $1,000 account into $50,000 in my first 4 months as an IBO. And a matter of the fact is that most of them are pyramid schemes, but not all of them. Because pyramid schemes are illegal, so they hide behind the MLMs, but most of their revenue comes from recruiting. I don't think iMarketsLive is a pyramid scheme. Because iMarketsLive is also an MLM, it has devised a compensation plan for the distributors or recruiters. This review will reveal their compensation plan, and you will also know about the levels and ranks of recruiters. So, stay with me. We are going to find whether it's a great money-making opportunity or a money-sucking rabbit hole. We are also going to evaluate the chances of making money by joining iMarketsLive. But put this decision on hold until you finished reading this review. I bet you'll not regret that. Probably, you're wondering why I am writing this review. Why Am I Writing iMarketsLive Compensation Plan Review? Digital marketing has evolved leaps and bounds over the decades. Ever since the internet became a marketplace for businesses and people, along with genuine opportunities, the number of scams is also massively increased. In most cases, a layperson or a novice can't differentiate between a lucrative money-making opportunity and a money-sucking, confidence-shaking scam. I'm a digital entrepreneur, and I have over 15 years' experience in marketing. You can imagine that what not I have seen in these 15 years. From gurus to courses, from programs to schemes, from affiliate marketing to Seo, from social media marketing to lead generation, I have seen it all. I have lost a lot of money to feed scams. In the end, I made it through. It was anything but easy. Now, I'm in a position to say that I can guide people about earning opportunities. Which one is genuine and which is fake? Is it legit or a scam? Even if it's legit, do I recommend it? Will you make money by joining this scheme or program? You can trust my judgment; I not only point out problems but also suggest solutions. Disclaimer: This review is my 100% unbiased and professional opinion. I'm not associated with iMarketsLive in any way. I will get no benefit if you join this website or don't give a hoot. I just want you to don't fall for a scam and wish you a ton of money. I have spent hours and hours researching and analyzing the iMarketsLive Compensation Plan. You are going to find all the details and all the hidden facts in this review. Without further ado, let's roll the ball with an overview. An Overview Of The iMarketsLive Compensation Plan: iMarketLive is the brainchild of Christopher Terry. He founded it in 2013. It's a forex trading company and also an educational platform. They offer many training courses for learning forex trading. But it's also an MLM and offers a compensation plan for the distributors. You can make money by joining them, promoting their program, and recruiting other people. MLM is a marketing strategy for iMarketsLive to include more people into their system and make more money. But I don't think that most of the recruits will make money by joining this MLM scheme. iMarketsLive: A Scam or a Viable Opportunity? ----- pay money upfront for entering into the sistem. They offer two packages; the Customer Platinum Package and IBO Platinum Package. For buying the Customer Platinum Package, you have to pay $195 for the first month. But after the first month, you will pay $145 monthly. Beware that this package is only for customers and not for distributors. IBO kit and compensation plan are not included in this package; you will only get forex training. If you're interested in joining iMarketsLive as a distributor and want to make money by recruiting, you have to buy their IBO Platinum package. In this package, along with forex education, you will also get an IBO kit and compensation plan. But for that, you have to pay $210 for the first month and after that $160 every month. Before paying any money to this company, you have to decide whether this scheme worth it. Will you make any money with this scheme? Can you convince other people to join this scheme? iMarketsLive Compensation Plan: Their compensation plan is not simple; you have to put effort to get your head around it. You have to join them to get the detailed plan, though some important things are provided here. There are four levels/ranks of distributors: Level one - 30% Level two - 10% Level three - 5% Level four - 5%. With a 30% recruitment commission, level one distributors earn the most money, while level four distributors earn the least amount of money. You have to start at level four. I can make decent money every month by generating leads for local businesses. This method has been a game-changer for me, and it has the potential to change yours too. I started using Facebook ads to generate leads because they are efficient and cost-effective. At first, I didn't know much about creating and running Facebook ad campaigns, but then I found a program called Local Marketing Vault that taught me everything I needed to know. This program covers topics like targeting the right audience, creating successful ads, managing multiple ad campaigns, writing copy for the ads, and implementing sales funnels. Even if you're not experienced in marketing or tech, you can still get good results by joining this program. You'll be able to make a decent income from home. The program also has a private Facebook group with over 5000 marketers who are willing to help each other. This is a great opportunity to learn and grow as a marketer.
